

Art Pro Loco
Upton Country Park
Friday 27-Monday 30th August

How it works

- ✓ 'Pro Loco' means of the place, and you are invited to come along on either the Friday, Saturday or Sunday to draw or paint around the Park. You are asked to complete your picture within the same day.
- ✓ Your work will be exhibited in the Gallery Upstairs, over the tearoom.
- ✓ You are asked to register with one of the stewards when you arrive, (by the tearooms). The entry fee is £2. (£1 for children under 5). You will receive a date stamp and an entry number.
- ✓ Please bring materials and equipment of your own choice. Paper should be of a decent quality, so it can be exhibited on a wall.
- ✓ On completion, please return your work to the stewards. If you wish to mount your work, please do this before you hand it in.
- ✓ Your work will be displayed in the Gallery for viewing along side the exhibition 'Upton Country Park: Past and Present'.
- ✓ On Monday 30th, after all work has been submitted, visitors are invited to come and choose their favourite piece of work, in 3 age categories: a) Children up to 5, b) children 5-15, c) everyone over 15 years.
- ✓ Voting slips and a posting box will be available. The 3 winners will be announced at 3pm on Monday.
- ✓ If you wish your work to be returned, if possible please collect by the end of Monday 30 August, otherwise by 5 pm on Saturday 4 September.
- ✓ This opportunity is open to everyone, regardless of age or ability, so come along and tell all your friends.
- ✓ This event is being run by Poole & East Dorset Art Society in conjunction with Upton Country Park.
